

California Estimated Tax Calculator

for the Tax Year

2025 ▾

This tool is intended to help you determine how much California income tax you would owe given the data you provide. The California income tax is based on the federal adjusted gross income (AGI), and then, additions and subtractions are made to account for differences in the federal and state tax laws. This means you need to provide and accurate estimate of the federal AGI and some of the values that were used to calculate it.

The blue fields are computed from the information you provide. The green fields are where you enter information. The first column shows where the information can be found in the tax return. Click this link for more help with this tool.
